Children: Obadiah Sr., Richard, Jr., Elizabeth, Jonathan, Mary, Hannah, Zachariah, Bethia, Enoch, John, Ruth. Richard and Elizabeth Sawtel arrived from England prior to 1636. This documented in "The Sartwelles In America 1635-1981", Olivia Sartwelle Barton, 1982.

In 1655, Richard and Elizabeth moved the family from Watertown to Groton, Mass where Richard received a grant of 20 acres of land as one of the original proprietors.

In Watertown records the name is spelled Sawtel. In Groton records the name is spelled Sawtell.

After severe Indian raids on 13 Mar 1676, Richard and Elizabeth moved the family back to Watertown where they remained until their deaths. At least one of the children returned to Groton (Obidiah).

The name is spelled Sawtelle, Sawtel, Sawtell, Sartwell, Sartell, Sawtle, Sattle, Satle, and even Satley in the records.

Terrence H. Fregly, Terrence H. Fregly Research, (Internet World Family Tree), "CD-ROM," According to this source, Richard Sawtel may have used the alias Dolman. This is the source for Richard's birthplace as Aller, Somerset, England.

According to one source, Richard Sawtel died on 14 Sep 1694 and this is documented in his will.
