Notes

The New England Historical and Genealogical Register, Vol. 126, No. 1, January 1972, pp 3-17, pp129-140., Text of article gives detailed information on the family of Richard Sawtell and his children and grandchildren. Also some limited information on his ancestors.

Children: Obadiah Sr., Richard, Jr., Elizabeth, Jonathan, Mary, Hannah, Zachariah, Bethia, Enoch, John, Ruth. Richard and Elizabeth Sawtel arrived from England prior to 1636. This documented in "The Sartwelles In America 1635-1981", Olivia Sartwelle Barton, 1982.

In 1655, Richard and Elizabeth moved the family from Watertown to Groton, Mass where Richard received a grant of 20 acres of land as one of the original proprietors.

In Watertown records the name is spelled Sawtel. In Groton records the name is spelled Sawtell.

After severe Indian raids on 13 Mar 1676, Richard and Elizabeth moved the family back to Watertown where they remained until their deaths. At least one of the children returned to Groton (Obidiah).

The name is spelled Sawtelle, Sawtel, Sawtell, Sartwell, Sartell, Sawtle, Sattle, Satle, and even Satley in the records.

Terrence H. Fregly, Terrence H. Fregly Research, (Internet World Family Tree), "CD-ROM," According to this source, Richard Sawtel may have used the alias Dolman. This is the source for Richard's birthplace as Aller, Somerset, England.

According to one source, Richard Sawtel died on 14 Sep 1694 and this is documented in his will.

Notes

Filmed Parish records for Aller, Somersetshire:

Baptism on 27 Oct 1611 for Elizabetha filia Guilielmi Pople. That would seem to be the right one and they typically christened the children right after birth so the birthdate could possibly be the 26th. (From Robert Heiling research 3/26/2000)

Notes

Richard Sawtel, Jr. perhaps born and died in England. Death recorded in Watertown, Mass. Vital Records as 9 Aug 1676, "according to England." Birth date Bef 1635 assumed because Richard and Elizabeth Sawtel were probably in Watertown prior to 30 Aug 1635 as that was the date land distribution was restricted in the township. Richard, Sr. was already a land holder on that date according to town records.

Richard Jr. served in King Phillip's War under Capt. Jonathan Remington at the Billerica, Mass. garrison in 1675 and 1676. He probably died in military service and is not necessarily the eldest son. This according to: The New England Historical and Genealogical Register, Vol. 126, No. 1, January 1972, pp 3-17, pp129-140.
